Email Safety

We recently had several reports that an individual using an email address fathergarylinsky@gmail.com was contacting parishioners asking for financial assistance.

Be aware: If Fr. Linsky or any of our staff or clergy reach out to you via email, it will be from an email that ends with:

@visitstpeters.org

or

@charlestondiocese.org

If you suspect you have received an email from someone impersonating our clergy or staff, please contact the office at 803-779-0036 or stpeters@visitstpeters.org

Thank you!

A Visitor's Perspective

Fr. Linsky recently received this note from a visitor to the Basilica of Saint Peter. It is a wonderful reminder of the many gifts we enjoy here, thanks to the faith, dedication and generosity of time, talent and treasure offered by our clergy, parishioners and staff.

Dear Father,

My greatest thanks for the beautiful Mass my daughter and I attended at 9 a.m. on Sunday, Dec 16, 2018, at your church. I thought I died and went to heaven! We were visiting for my granddaughter's graduation that day from the University of SC. Walking into church we were greeted so warmly and given a worship aid with all the songs and some prayers (my daughter is not a practicing Catholic and never goes with me). The young woman who was cantor had a lovely voice and the organ was amazing. The Mass was done with great reverence and dignity (gloves on altar servers) and no one talked before Mass. Your homily on Gaudete Sunday to rejoice was so outstanding. I didn't want to leave—seeing the tabernacle in the center behind the altar and the lovely stained glass windows above and behind it.

Thank you for such a heavenly experience!

Mary Ann D.

Baptismal Preparation Class

Sunday, January 27th at 9 a.m.
Neglia Hall

We welcome and congratulate families wishing to pass on the faith to their children through the sacrament of Baptism. At this session we will explore the meaning of the sacrament and familiarize you with how the Baptism is celebrated. Both parents are asked to be present at the class. However, if for some valid reason one parent cannot attend the class, the Catholic parent must attend.

As part of the Baptismal Rite, parents are promising to raise their child in the faith. So that the Church may have an expectation that the child will be raised in the Faith, parents must be registered, participating members of Saint Peter's for at least 6 months.

You must pre-register for this Baptismal Preparation Class; please contact Donna Tomasini at donna@visitstpeters.org or 803-779-0036.

We delight in sharing this significant moment in your family's ongoing faith development and pray that you will be enriched by your experience. Saint Peter's welcomes your child with great joy and looks forward to growing in faith and love with your family.
